10 Plaintiff,

ORDER GRANTING

11 vs.

MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE OF
EARLY NEUTRAL EVALUATION
SESSION
(FIRST REQUEST)

12 WASHOE COUNTY SCHOOL
13 DISTRICT; and DOES I-X,

14 Defendants.
15 _____/

16 COMES NOW Plaintiff CRISTINA ORONoz, by and through attorney Ronald J.
17 Dreher, Esq., hereby files her Motion for Continuance of Early Neutral Evaluation Session (ECF
18 No. 11) currently set for Monday, February 10, 2025, at 9:00 a.m.

19
20 On February 4, 2025, at approximately 4:30 p.m. Plaintiff's undersigned counsel was 21 ordered to appear in-person before the Honorable Judge Andrew P. Gordon in the Las Vegas
22 United States District Court on February 10, 2025, at 2:00 p.m. in case number 2:25-cv-00218.
23 The case in Judge Gordon's court is an ex parte application for temporary restraining order and 24 was set for hearing on short notice due to the urgency of the matter. Plaintiff's attorney emailed
25 Defendant's counsel on February 5, 2025 advising them of the conflict and requesting a

1 stipulation to reschedule the Early Neutral Evaluation Session (“ENE”). Defendant’s attorneys
2 would not agree to a stipulation to reschedule the ENE, and Plaintiff is now filing this Motion.

3 Accordingly, due to this unforeseen and urgent matter that has arisen and is causing a
4 scheduling conflict for her counsel, Plaintiff is requesting the Court continue and reschedule the 5 ENE to another date so that Plaintiff may appear with, and be represented by, her counsel of 6 record. This is the first request for a continuance in this matter and Plaintiff asserts that this
7 Motion and request is not being made for any improper purpose or to cause an undue delay.
